S. AFRA M.

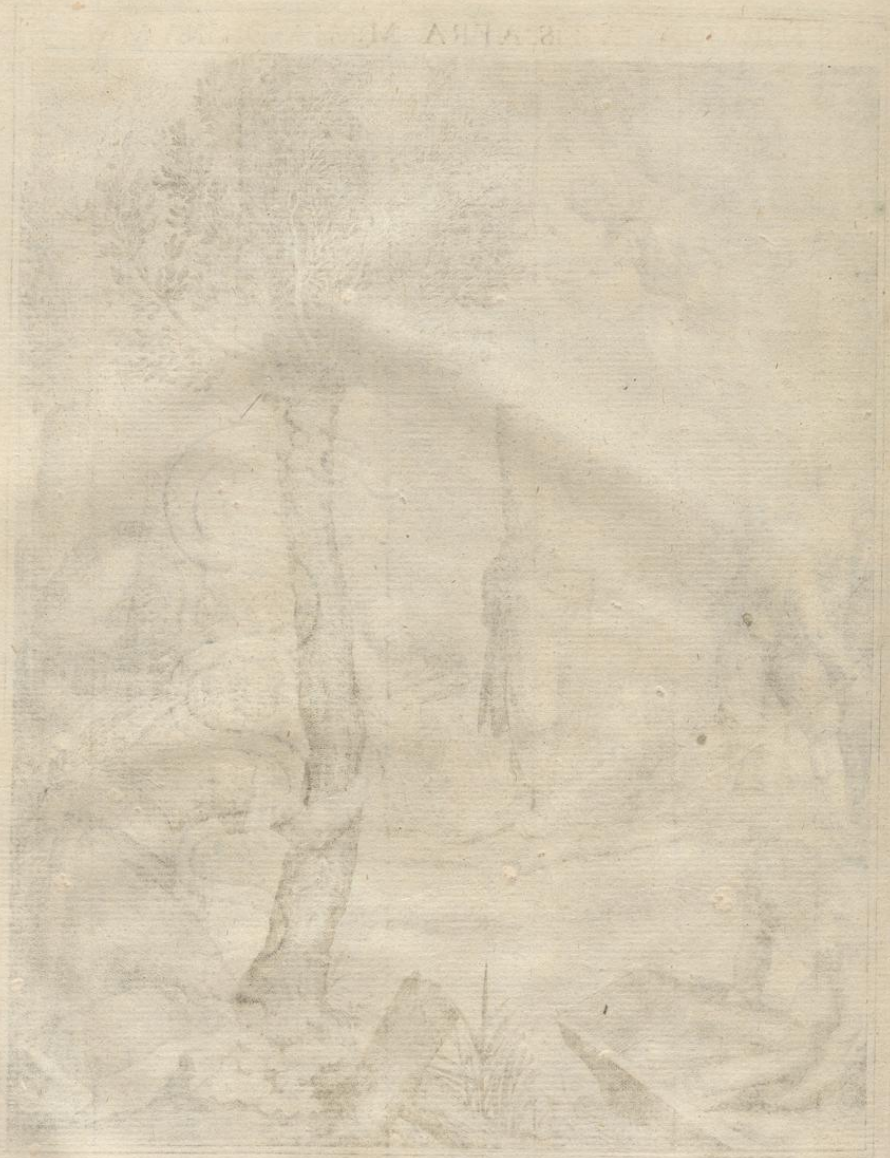

*Te Venerem Cyprus, te Rhætia nostra Mineruam
Fecit, vitricem Martyra Boia dedit.
Turpia sacra Venus docuit, pia Rhætia casta:
Sed quod peccaras, pectoris error erat.*

*Lux ubi caelestis iussit procul esse tenebras,
Viciisti Vestrae mente pudicitiam.
Sic olidus fornix sanctas migravit in aras:
Cor sanctum Caelo gratior ara Deo est.*

The first part of the work is devoted to a general description of the country, and to a history of the various tribes which inhabit it. The second part contains a description of the manners and customs of the principal tribes, and of the different languages which they speak. The third part is a collection of the most remarkable traditions and legends of the Indians, and of the various superstitions which they entertain. The fourth part is a collection of the most interesting and curious facts which have been observed in the history of the Indians, and of the various modes of life which they have pursued. The fifth part is a collection of the most remarkable and curious customs and manners of the Indians, and of the various modes of life which they have pursued.

*Dum legit hec NATÆ, domine dum pignora seruae;
MATER, et hec fiunt sanctus in igne cinis.
Ille chris vester BOIAS prior imbuat aras;
Hinc tot apud Superos lumina BOIA micant.*

*RHECIA produxit, sed BOICA condidit artus;
Illa thorum vobis prebuit, ista rogum.
Hunc LYCVS extinxit, sed non extinguere vestrum
Virtutis percutit flamma, vel vnda decus.*

Etsi Laureacensem & Noricum agrum Deciana primum crudelitas, & mox infecuta Diocletiana sacro Martyrum cruore imbuerit, campos tamen Lycates, hodieque in Boico solo jacentes prima consecrauit Afra, quæ flamma è fumo data adeo illos illustrauit, uti cum illis simul velut altera mundi lampas omnium gentium terras longè latèque irradiarit, locus insula tum fuit, quam in Rhætia topographia spectas, postea Lyco varijs mæandris expatiato in continentem vertit. Historiam Afræ cum Hilaria & ancillis omnium manibus tritam copiosius non persequar, cum & Surius suis illam Voluminibus adiecerit, & M. Velferus, P.M. eandem seorsim editam commentarijs illustrarit. Cuius & Breuiarium in Diuis Augustanis cum illustri elogio cognoscis. Quis enim nesciat, D. Narcissum ab Hispanis profugum ad hanc Augustæ Vindel. tum Veneri Cypriæ operantem diuertisse, eamque cum totâ familiâ proscripto dæmonum cultu, ad Christi disciplinam traduxisse, traductam mox à Gaio Rhætia præside flammis addictam, fumo necatam; Hilariam parentem cum tribus Afræ pedisequis ad eiusdem tumulum igne crematas? Nec aliud superest, quàm vt per earum vota nobis DEVM propitiemus.
