CHORAL
N.º 1 .

The first system of the Choral piece is written on a grand staff. The treble clef part consists of a series of half notes, while the bass clef part features a more complex accompaniment with some accidentals and a fermata. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The second system continues the musical notation. It includes a variety of note values and rests, with some notes beamed together. The system ends with a double bar line.

1^{te} Veränderung.

Mit starken Stimmen.

The first variation is characterized by more complex rhythmic patterns and dynamics. The treble clef part has more active lines with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the bass clef part provides a steady accompaniment. The system ends with a double bar line.

The second variation continues the complex rhythmic patterns. It features a mix of note values and rests, with some notes beamed together. The system concludes with a double bar line.
